SUBJECT: Home Invasion, Robbery

Blacksburg Police are investigating a home invasion and robbery that happened late Sunday afternoon.

At 5:41 pm on April 30th, Blacksburg Police received a 911 call from the 1600 block of Patrick Henry Drive. The female caller, who was hidden in a back bedroom of the residence, stated that an armed man had entered their residence brandishing a handgun; and she could hear her roommate crying. Police arrived to find the suspect attempting to flee the residence. Police arrested Christopher Todd Younger, 29, of Blacksburg at the scene. Police recovered the weapon and proceeds of the robbery inside the residence where Younger discarded them when police arrived.

Younger was taken before a Montgomery County Magistrate and subsequently charged with Abduction and Aggravated Robbery.

Younger is currently being held in the Montgomery County Jail without bond. Blacksburg Police continue the investigation into this incident.
